GENERAL OVERDRAFT INFORMATION

An overdraft occurs when you have an insufficient available balance in your checking account to cover a withdrawal from your account.

Courtesy Pay	$33	For each item we pay
Insufficient Funds	$33	For each item we return
Overdraft Transfer	$5	For each transfer of available funds from a linked overdraft protection account such as a savings.

DEBIT CARD PURCHASE OVERDRAFT INFORMATION

You choose how Citadel handles your one-time (non-recurring) debit card transactions when you have an insufficient available balance in your checking account at the time of the transaction.

If you opt-in for Courtesy Pay	$33	This means you allow Citadel to authorize one-time (non-recurring) debit card transactions when you do not have a sufficient available balance. If we authorize an overdraft a $33 fee will apply.
If you don't opt-in for Courtesy Pay		This means your account is set up to decline any one-time (non-recurring) debit card transaction that may overdraw your account. These transactions will be declined. There are no fees for declined transactions.
